

Environmental Defense Fund (edf.org), a leading international nonprofit organization, creates transformational solutions to the most serious environmental problems. EDF links science, economics, law and innovative private-sector partnerships. Our climate team has engaged in U.N. climate talks since the 1992 Rio summit, providing groundbreaking economic and legal analysis and recommendations to policymakers. Our expertise on market-based measures to address climate change has made EDF a key player in the development of carbon markets around the world. At COP 25, our experts are closely following the carbon markets negotiations around the Article 6 chapter of the Paris Agreement rulebook. EDF experts are also engaging in discussions around energy, oceans and fisheries climate strategies that could be incorporated into countries' Paris Agreement pledges.

GLOBAL CLIMATE NEGOTIATIONS, ARTICLE 6 CARBON MARKETS

Alex Hanafi, Director, Multilateral Climate Strategy and Lead Counsel ahanafi@edf.org

Alex leads EDF's advocacy at the UNFCCC, where he works with policy makers to identify and implement high-integrity standards to guide the use of economic incentives for environmental protection and linkage among global carbon markets. Alex's current focus is on ensuring Article 6 negotiations include transparent and robust accounting provisions, especially needed to avoid global "double counting" of emissions reductions.

CLIMATE POLICY, CARBON BUDGETS, ENERGY POLICY

Bryony Worthington, Executive Director of Environmental Defense Fund Europe, bworthington@edf.org, @bryworthington

Baroness Worthington leads the European chapter of Environmental Defense Fund, where she plays a critical role in the execution of the organization's oceans, climate and energy work. Drawing from her varied experiences, Bryony elevates EDF's voice in the European environmental debate and helps oversee our activities and partnerships in key countries

ENERGY TRANSITION, METHANE

Mark Brownstein, Senior Vice President, Energy
mbrownstein@edf.org, @MarkSBrownstein

Mark leads EDF's Energy program, shaping the organization's strategy to bend the curve on oil and gas emissions. Mark runs EDF's global methane campaign and efforts toward facilitating an equitable transition away from fossil fuel dependence. Prior to EDF, Mark held senior management positions in an electric and gas utility and served as an air quality regulator. Mark is on the advisory board of the University of Pennsylvania's Kleinman Center for Energy Policy and a former member of the U.S. National Petroleum Council and the Electric Power Research Institute's public advisory board.

CHINA

Jianyu Zhang, Vice President, EDF's China program
jzhang@edf.org

Jianyu is primarily responsible for EDF's work on China's emissions trading system, and maintaining and developing relationships with the Chinese government and key stakeholders. He oversees the implementation of EDF's projects in China.

CARBON PRICING, CHINA

Xiaolu "Lulu" Zhao, Project Manager, EDF's China program
xzhao@edf.org

Lulu is responsible for the strategic design and project development of EDF's programs in China related to climate change initiatives, with a specific focus on carbon pricing policies.

METHANE, ENERGY INDUSTRY

Shareen Yawanarajah, International Policy Manager, Energy
syawanarajah@edf.org, @shareenyEDF

Shareen is an energy policy expert, working to advance methane mitigation strategies and effective policy frameworks in key international regions. She engages with governments and industry stakeholders in countries like Canada and Mexico to identify opportunities to reduce methane at the national and sub-national level. Shareen has over 20 years Energy industry experience, and prior to coming to EDF, was the Oil and Gas Vice Consul at the United Kingdom Department of Trade in Houston and worked at the U.S. Department of Energy as the Director of Oil and Gas Research.

OCEANS, SUPPLY CHAINS, CONSERVATION FINANCE

Tim Fitzgerald, Director, Impact
tfitzgerald@edf.org, @hawaiifitz

Tim leads EDF's global programs on sustainable ocean investments, seafood markets, and multilateral engagement. His research focuses on the intersection of ocean conservation and human health, and he serves on the advisory boards of the Sustainable Ocean Fund, Fair Trade USA, Ecofish LLC and GulfWild®.

FISHERIES MANAGEMENT.

Willow Battista, Manager, Research, Design, and Engagement
wbattista@edf.org, @winkybe

Willow is a member of the Fisheries Solution Center (FSC). She specializes in helping fisheries build climate-resilience. She has had a role in the creation of many of FSC's tools, like the Governance and Policy Analysis tool and the Comprehensive Assessment of Risks to Ecosystems (CARE).

DEFORESTATION SUPPLY CHAIN, REDD+

Breanna Lujan, Project Manager, Forest and Climate Policy
blujan@edf.org / @BreannaLujan

As the Policy Analyst for EDF's Climate program, Breanna is a technical expert on the implementation of jurisdictional-scale, deforestation-free supply chains, the integration of robust land sector targets in the UNFCCC post-2020 framework agreement, and the analysis of REDD+ policy issues.

CORSIA, SUSTAINABLE AVIATION FUELS

Pedro Piris-Cabezas, Senior Economist
ppiris@edf.org

Pedro has participated in the design of CORSIA since 2013, with an expertise on allocation of offsetting obligations, monitoring reporting and verification, emissions unit criteria, and sustainable aviation fuels.

CALIFORNIA CLIMATE POLICY, AVIATION

Katelyn Roedner Sutter, Manager, U.S. Climate
krloedner@edf.org, @KERoednerSutter

Katelyn is Manager for U.S. Climate, where she advocates for legislation and administrative policies in states including California to establish and implement long-term greenhouse gas emission reductions and improve local air quality. Katelyn also works to promote ambitious climate action in international aviation.

U.S. CLIMATE AND ENERGY POLICY, SUBNATIONAL CARBON MARKETS

Pam Kiely, Senior Director of Regulatory Strategy
pkiely@edf.org

Pam works at the intersection of state and federal regulatory policy. Pam currently spearheads EDF's subnational carbon markets work. Previously, Pam led EDF's work with states and power companies to implement the Clean Power Plan as well as efforts to secure major state-level transitions of power generation infrastructure from high-emitting to clean sources.
